

Getting started Guide for: nanonavi for iPhone

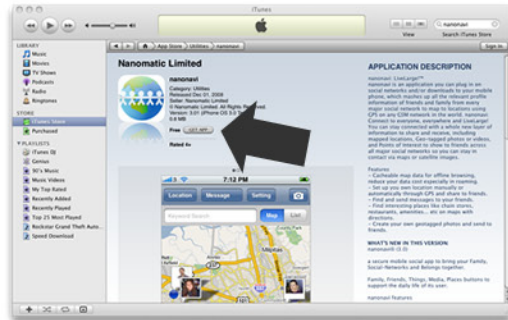

nanonavi Introduction:

nanonavi is an application you can plug in on social networks and download to your mobile phone, which mashes up all the relevant profile information of friends and family from every major social network to map to locations using GPS on any GSM network in the world.

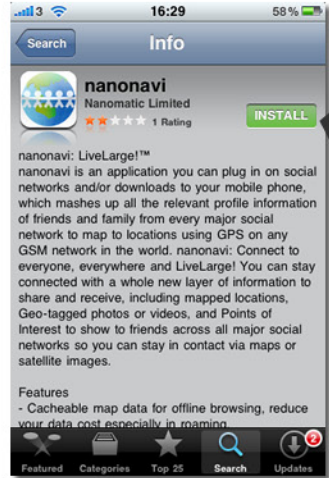

For more information, you can visit our website www.nanonavi.com

Download nanonavi:

Download our iPhone application from iTunes or click App Store on your iPhone. Search nanonavi and click "INSTALL". The application will automatically download, sync/install to your iPhone.

Download nanonavi on iTunes.

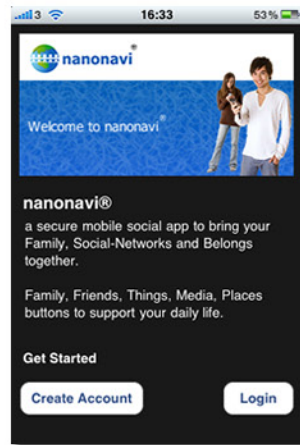

Download nanonavi from iPhone.

Registration and Login:

After open the application, simply tap "Create Account". and type in some personal information, your account will be create and you can start using. Moreover, if you like to, you can linkup nanonavi with social network accounts or import your friends from address book and webmail accounts.

Basic Operations:

All the major functions are located on the main screen.

Location: You can set your location manually or by using the build-in GPS and send it to your friends.

Message: View your Inbox. Send and Receive text-base or location message from your friends. You can also receive alerts message from nanofinders.

Settings: You can do some basic settings here like:

- Map Style: Street Map/Satellite Map
- Download Map Tile
- On/Off Network
- Use GPS
- Clear Cache
- Tracking function
- Geofencing function

Camera: Take a photo and add as a new Media or Place.

5 object-type: Family, Friends, Things, Media, Place. You can use the "Map" and "List" on the right hand corner to view between 2 modes. Under each object-type, you can search, add, remove and show their profiles to know about each object.

Search box: you can filter out results by Area, Radius and Category.

